MONTHLY TALK - 13th March - HI DE HI! BEING A BUTLIN REDCOAT. By Rosemary Chaloner.

Our March speaker is Rosemary Chaloner, who I'd planned to invite for next year, has kindly stepped into the breach to talk to us on March 13th.

She's involved with many organisations in Cardiff including the Western Front Association and various theatre groups. A published author, she's worked as a park ranger, a tour guide and a Butlin Redcoat, so we can expect some interesting and amusing tales.

A light-hearted recollection of her time as a Butlin Redcoat at Pwllheli in North Wales during the early '60's, and as a Butlin "Chief Hostess" at The Ocean Hotel, Saltdean, near Brighton in the 1970's.

Please remember non-members, friends and family are welcome.

Thanks Geoff Henderson

Final call for any members yet to pay their 2024 membership fees.

A gentle reminder that this will be your last newsletter. If it's slipped your mind the membership fee is £42 you can pay by cheque, made payable to Porthcawl u3a and sent to:

13 Newton Nottage Road, Porthcawl. CF36 5PF

If you would like to pay online, please ring our general enquiries line: MOB 07824 133777

Gary is on holiday, but someone will return your call and give you details and a reference number.

Thank you, Gary Membership Secretary

Our walking group have been busy again.

As part of Wales Climate week, 23 members of our walking group spent an interesting hour in Coffee UN, or Elen's Community Café in Newton Nottage Road following their walk on the 26th January on Newton beach

The aim was to raise awareness on how climate change affects us all, but not always equally. But tackling climate change brings us the opportunity for positive change and for reducing inequalities in our society.

Everyone participated in a talk by Elen and discussions of the actions we can all take as individuals and groups, how we can be brought together to tackle this issue and what it means to us, how we can be part of the changes instead of having change done to us.

This is particularly important to residents in Porthcawl as we are only one very high tide and really bad storm coinciding which could have devastating consequences to parts of our town and beaches. Elen also supports coffee growers who look to protect our climate, she assists in a project to plant 1 tree for every person in Wales and raise funds for Solar Farms for Kenyan farmers. The coffee was free as part of the initiative, but our walking group members generosity raised enough funds for 1 solar farm to aid a Kenyan farmer.

Martin Patten very kindly stepped into the breach for our 14th February 14th talk. Geoff's planned speaker was unable to attend, hopefully it will be rearranged for a different date.

His theme was:

'Do you want to live forever?'

It was very well attended and very thought provoking. He gave us a brief dip into research that we wouldn't usually get to see.

Thank you Martin.

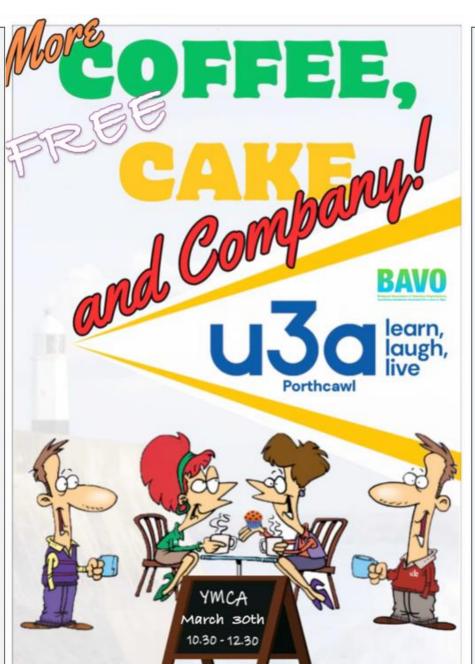

IF IT CAN'T BE REDUCED, REUSED, REPAIRED, REBUILT, REFURBISHED, REFINISHED, RESOLD, RECYCLED, OR COMPOSTED, THEN IT SHOULD BE RESTRICTED, DESIGNED, OR REMOVED FROM PRODUCTION.

Our first BAVO sponsored coffee morning last month was very well received and attended. From our u3a's point of view it was very successful as we attracted four new members and handed out quite a few New Membership forms.

Thank you to all our volunteers who did such an excellent job setting up the room and running the kitchen, washing dishes, meeting and greeting and keeping the supply of tea and coffee flowing.

Everyone that chatted to attendees, members and non-members, and anyone else who did any tasks I've forgotten! To Louise and Marcia for organising it, and for Rhian who designed our posters and advertised it, along with Louise, and finally to all our members that supported it. Caroline Limbert also very thoughtfully printed us off some table puzzles which were very popular.

This year we're trying to make a huge effort to get our u3a recognised around our local community and this is an excellent start, thank you so much. It's wonderful when we all pull together. Jaci
